Hi Everyone,

Here's the latest news from the Sharon Bands.

Jazzy Valentine Virtual Playlist

The Jazzy Valentine playlist was a hit with our email list. It was our most successful email yet, with lots of views!

Celtic Celebration

Past favorite "At Kitty O'Shea's" is available to listen to on our website from our March 2012 Celtic Celebration concert. Please check it out!

Website

Work is still underway on our new website. One exciting new feature we're looking forward to is a "History" page that will have a lot of great memories and information on the Sharon Bands. Thank you to Glenn and Art for taking on this project!

Additional RSBB Concert Date

RSBB has been confirmed for Wednesday, July 14th in Dedham at the Endicott Estate.

RSBB Rehearsal

Work is underway to get the RSBB back to regular rehearsals. We're looking at a probable start date of Thursday, 4/15 from 7:30 - 9:30 in Quincy for those who are able to attend. We're also looking into having a Zoom connection for those who are not able to attend in person.

Survey

Please keep an eye out for a personnel survey going out soon. In order to help us make plans, we need to know who will be joining us in future events.

Moving Forward

It's time to pull your instruments out of the closet and dust them off! While we can't be certain of what the immediate future will hold, it does look like things are moving in the right direction. We'd like to get the band back together as soon as the opportunity presents itself. Let's all take time in the coming weeks to blow out the cobwebs and get back into playing shape so we're all ready to go when called! Hopefully that will be sooner rather than later!

Next Board Meeting

As always, members are welcome to attend board meetings. We had a couple of members join our March meeting and we loved seeing them! The next meeting is on Monday, April 12th at 7:00 pm via Zoom. Please reply to this email if you'd like to attend and I will send you the Zoom link before the next meeting.
